Dedication

in gratitude to an outstanding
teacher
and friend

Wayne McKay

the class of nineteen hundred and seventy-two

if you have learned to walk a
little more
sure-footedly than I,
be patient
with
my stumbling.
if through experience,
your soul has gained
heights which I
as yet in
dim-lit vision see,
hold out your
hand and point the way.
lest from
its straightness I
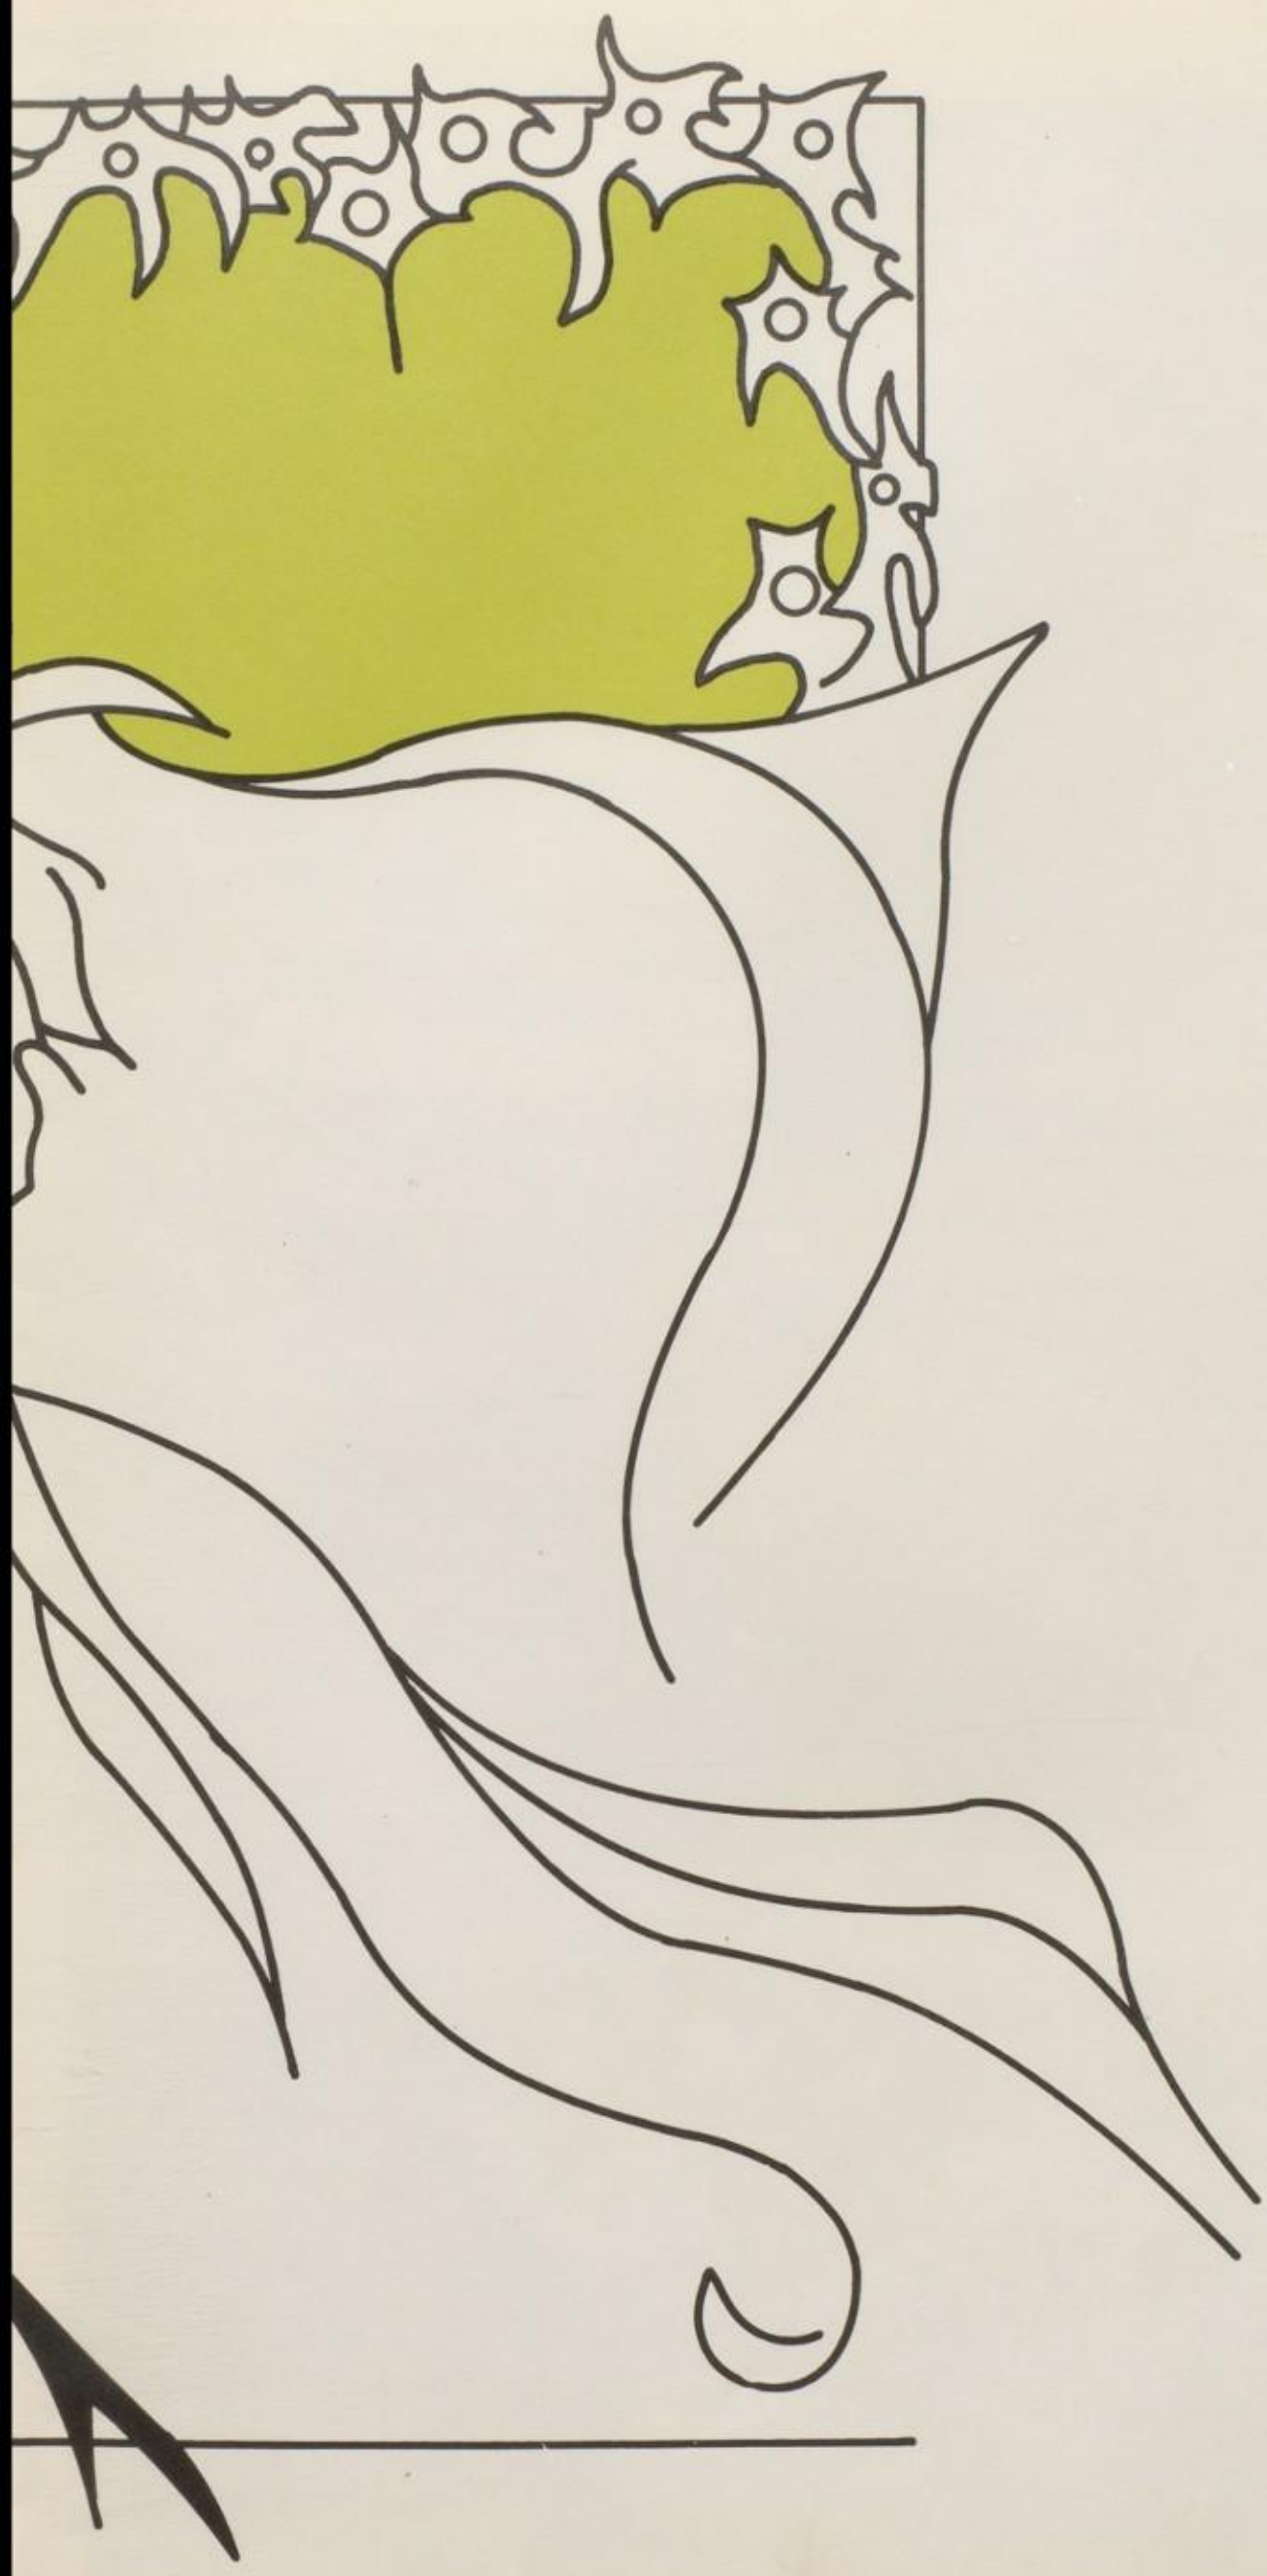
should stray and walk
a mile with
me



a time to kill
a time to heal a
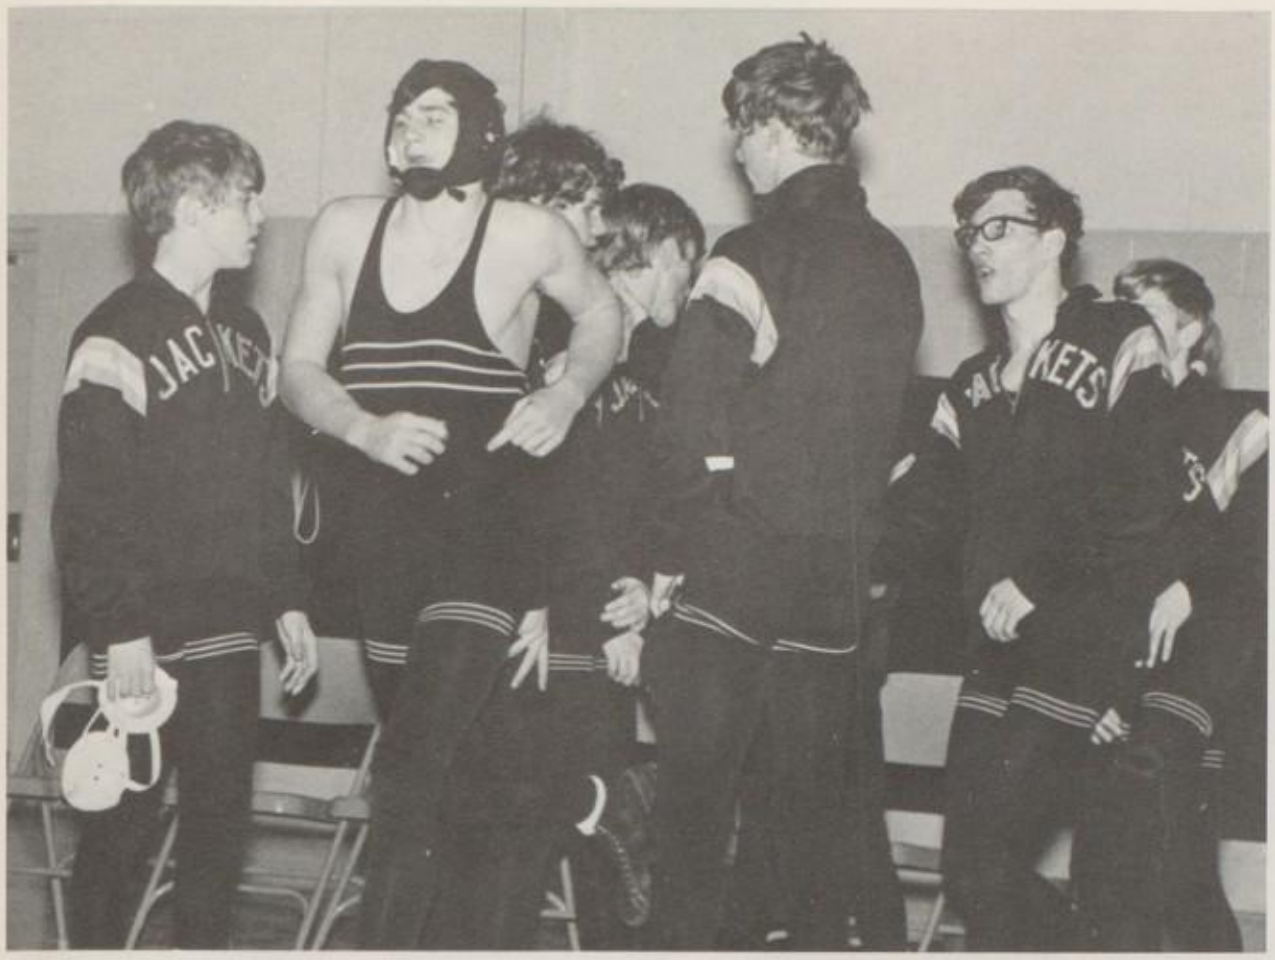
time
to
laugh a time
to weep

Just like in MacBeth . . . A=B with your posterior ll to the floor — We'll smear those kids!

When and where was this picture taken, girls?



If you're gonna mess around, I'm gonna leave!

Charge of the Light Brigade??
